

Community Grants 2020

Guidelines & Application Form

The Geeveston Progress Association is committed to support local groups and organisations to build a strong, safe, vibrant and sustainable community in Geeveston.

In 2020, a total of $5,000 is available, with grants capped at $1,000.

WHO CAN APPLY?

Community-based groups and organisations in the Greater Geeveston area, being from Castle Forbes Bay to Surges Bay.

ELIGIBLE PROJECTS

Projects that demonstrate a clear benefit to the Geeveston community.

APPLICATION PROCESS

Grant applications can be made each year with successful applicants being advised in September, and funds disbursed shortly after.

Forms can be:

1. downloaded from www.GeevestonProgressAssociation/grants2020, or
2. collected from the Visitor Information Centre

APPLICATIONS MUST BE SENT BY MAIL TO:

GPA Grants
PO Box 358
GEEVESTON TAS 7116

Applications arriving by email, over-the-counter delivery, or handed to someone to deliver to someone else puts your application at HIGH RISK of failing to arrive at the correct destination in time for consideration. The GPA will not be held responsible for applications that fail to arrive on time.

Applications must be mailed by close of business, Monday 31 August 2020, as evidenced by the envelope postmark.

Successful applicants must show how they will acknowledge the contribution of the Geeveston Progress Association towards their project.

Successful applicants must provide an acquittal to the GPA showing the benefits the community has received from the nominated project. An acquittal form will be provided with a cheque.

Contact GPA Secretary, Marlowe Aster on 0417 881 838 for more information.
